Ordinance Designating the Mt. Shepherd Archaeological Pottery Site c. 1775-1800 as a Local Historic Landmark in Randolph County, North Carolina

WHEREAS, Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3C of the North Carolina General Statutes provides for the designation of local historic landmarks; and

WHEREAS, on June 2, 2008, the Randolph County Board of Commissioners adopted an Ordinance which established the Randolph County Historic Landmark Preservation Commission to perform those duties of designating and regulating historic local landmarks pursuant to North Carolina General Statutes; and

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners has taken into full consideration all statements and information contained in the Landmark Designation Application for the Mt. Shepherd Archaeological Pottery Site, c. 1775-1800, as submitted by the Randolph County Historic Landmark Preservation Commission; and

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources, State Historic Preservation Office, has reviewed the Landmark Application, noting that the Mt. Shepherd Archaeological Pottery Site, c. 1775-1800, possesses the requisite significance and integrity for local landmark designation; and

WHEREAS, the Randolph County Historic Landmark Preservation Commission and the County Board of Commissioners have held the required public hearings and published legal notices with mailings to adjoining property owners; and

WHEREAS, the Randolph County Historic Landmark Preservation Commission has adopted a unanimous resolution requesting the Board of County Commissioners to designate the Mt. Shepherd Archaeological Pottery Site, c. 1775-1800 as a local historic landmark; and

WHEREAS, the Randolph County Board of Commissioners find that the Mt. Shepherd Archaeological Pottery Site, c. 1775-1800, meets the following specific criteria outlined in the adopting Ordinance establishing the Commission: Critical Part of the County's Heritage by having value as an example of the cultural, economic, historic, and social heritage of Randolph County; and

WHEREAS, this property is more specifically described as follows:

A portion of PIN# 7713617423, Tabernacle Township, which consists of 2.6 acres beginning on the left where the property line crosses at the dead end of SR 1686. It proceeds adjacent to and west of the private road known as Mt. Shepherd Road Ext. approximately 240 feet. The site delineation then bears to the left at the beginning of the graveled maintenance and camp driveway, proceeding north-westward for approximately 390 feet. At this point, the site delineation then runs south approximately 473 feet along the western property line. Then, the site delineation runs eastward approximately 298 feet along the southern property line, ending at the beginning point, and encompassing an area of approximately 2.60 acres.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED, by the Board of Commissioners of the County of Randolph, North Carolina, that:

- 1: The property known as the Mt. Shepherd Archaeological Pottery Site, c. 1775-1800, whose nearest address is 1043 Mt. Shepherd Road Extension, Asheboro, North Carolina, within the planning jurisdiction of the County of Randolph, North Carolina, is hereby designated as a Local Historic Landmark pursuant to Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3C, of the North Carolina General Statutes.
- 2: That the Mt. Shepherd Archaeological Pottery Site, c. 1775-1800, may be materially altered, restored, remodeled, or demolished only following the issuance of a Certificate of Appropriateness from the Historic Landmark Preservation Commission.
- 3: That nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed to prevent the ordinary maintenance or repair of any architectural feature in or on said property that does not involve a change of design, material or outer appearance thereof, after obtaining the necessary permits and official approval for said stated repair. Nothing herein shall prevent the construction, alteration, restoration, demolition, or removal of such feature when a building inspector or similar authorized official certifies to the Historic Landmark Preservation Commission that such action is required for the public safety because of an unsafe condition. Furthermore, nothing shall be construed to prevent the property owner from making any use of this property not prohibited by other statutes, ordinances, or regulations.
- 4: That a suitable sign may be posted indicating the designation as a Local Historic Landmark and containing appropriate information.
- 5: That the High Point District of the United Methodist Church (Mt. Shepherd Retreat Center), owner of the Mt. Shepherd Archaeological Pottery Site, c. 1775-1800, hereby accepts notice as required by the applicable law of this action, and that copies of this Ordinance be filed and indexed in the office the Clerk to the Board of County Commissioners, the Randolph County Register of Deeds, the Randolph County Tax Department, and the County Planning and Inspections Departments as required by applicable law.

Upon the motion of Kemp, and a second by Haywood, the foregoing Ordinance was passed upon its first reading by a vote of 5-0.

This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after the date of its passage.
